Passenger Train services over unusual sections

This month we present the first part of a list of booked trains which will traverse unusual branches, links or sections of line not normally used. The details apply to the Summer service and should be read in conjunction with the appropriate public time table(s).

We are indebted to the Public Relations & Publicity Officer, London Midland Region, for allowing this information — normally only available to those with working time tables — to be published.

The following standard notes apply:—

- D — Train does not operate for the full period of the time table.
J — Train does not operate for the full period of the time table and does not commence running until July or later.
N — Not advertised in public time tables. Readers should make such local inquiries as may be necessary to ensure that trains marked 'N' will actually be running when they intend to travel.
M — Mondays; T — Tuesdays; W — Wednesdays; Th. — Thursdays;
F — Fridays plus O — only or X — excepted; SUN. — Sundays only.
Where no indication is given, train runs Mondays to Saturdays (inclusive).
